1. On 8 July 1954, a number of Russian-speaking civilians was observed at Allentsteig (C 49/R 53). No unusual troop movements were seen on 8 and 12 July. Officers observed on this day included three lieutenant colonels who wore red-bordered black epaulets with tank insignia, a lieutenant colonel who wore black-bordered black insignia, five majors who wore red-bordered black epaulets, and two majors of the medical service. On 8 July, vehicular traffic included driver school truck driven by a soldier with black-bordered red epaulets; and vehicles driven by soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets:

On 10 July, vehicular traffic between Allentsteig and Goepritz included sedan and truck driven by soldiers with black-bordered red epaulets; and the following vehicles driven by soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets:

2. On 12 July, 11 boxcars and 8 flatcars were side-tracked at the Goepritz (C 49/R 64) railroad station. Van-like truck driven by a soldier with red-bordered black epaulets picked up several officers and at the railroad station. Four empty tank cars stood on the railroad branch leading to the former factory. Truck left the supply depot at the former factory. The trucks were loaded with supplies and driven by soldiers with black-bordered black and red-bordered black epaulets respectively. Three more trucks and 2 trailers were parked at the installation.

Comment. Most of the vehicles [redacted] belonged to the 95th Gds Mtz Rifle Div and the 13th Gds Mech Div. Three of the vehicles belonged to the Central Group of Forces. The observation again confirms that the 95th Gds Mtz Rifle Div and the 13th Gds Mech Div were absent from the post and at the summer camp on the Doellersheim troop training grounds during the first third of July 1954.
